General form of application to the Planning and Environment List

Making an application

Information that must accompany your application

- Details of the Act and the section of the Act under which the application is made
- Copy of the decision by the responsible authority or other relevant authority (where relevant)
- Statement of Grounds, if a separate sheet is necessary
- The names and addresses of each joint applicant in decipherable form, and their signature, if this is a joint application

If the application relates to a dispute about a proposal to amend a plan or document, clearly identified copies of the original and proposed plan or document must be attached to the application. The proposed changes must be clearly identified on the proposed plan or document and a schedule listing the proposed changes must also be attached.

If your application is incomplete and you do not include all the material and information required, plus payment of the fee, your application may be rejected or struck out.

What will happen after you lodge your application?

After you lodge your application, the Tribunal may allocate a hearing date to hear the application or may allocate a date for a practice day hearing to consider the application and its future conduct. The Tribunal will issue an initiating order setting out the date for the hearing or the practice day hearing and giving directions about steps that you and other parties to the proceeding must comply with. The initiating order will set dates by which each step must be completed. A date will not be allocated until your application is complete.

If you fail to comply with the Tribunal’s initiating order by the dates specified in the order, your application may be struck out without further notice. If you are unable to comply with any aspect of the initiating order, you must apply to the Tribunal in writing for an extension of time. You cannot change dates without an order by the Tribunal.

The Tribunal relies on the accuracy of the information you provide with your application to calculate the length of time required for the hearing. If you believe the time allocated is insufficient or too much, please advise the Tribunal in writing as soon as possible after receiving the initiating order.
